Volume 17 Issue 7

February 2020

"Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making His appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake He made Him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God." ~ II Corinthians 5:20-21

Administrator's News

By Mr. Jon Hood, Principal

"How do you do it?" That was a question presented to us by a parent of another school. More specifically, a parent of a school we compete against in volleyball. This particular school beat us in three straight sets. In the loss, this parent noticed something about our team. They played hard until the last point. Teammates encouraged each other up to the very end. The Cougars appeared to have fun the entire match. He even noticed our student section. They cheered AND STOOD the whole match. This parent did not see the same behavior or attitude from his school. He wondered why our behavior and attitude seemed so different.

Matthew 5:16 says, "In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in Heaven". When the CCS volleyball team was fighting for every point, as they played the match and encouraged each other, the ladies and their coaches were doing just what Matthew 5:16 states. The team was letting The Light shine. The light that is in their hearts came out. When the fans stand the entire game, when they create and do a specific cheer for each girl that serves, they aren't just being rowdy and having fun – they are letting The Light shine.

This does not just happen, but it is part of our school's focus as a discipleship Christian school. The chapel speakers we invite to come are selected with a purpose. The curriculum we choose for Bible class and all of our classes is given prayerful and careful consideration. The side conversations between student and teacher that happen after the bell are part of the discipleship process. In athletics, we expect our coaches to do more than just aim for athletic excellence. Their true calling is as disciplers of their athletes. Finally, to answer the question "How do you do it?" It is the families that make up the community of CCS. Quite simply, it is what they expect out of this school.

Miss Megan Dick

I am pleased to introduce our February Staff Spotlight - Miss Megan Dick. Megan was born and raised in Douglas, WY. She lived in the same house her entire life until she moved away to college. She comes from a family of five – her mother, father and two brothers - one of which is her twin!

Megan’s dad is a circuit-riding pastor, so she grew up going to very small rural ranch churches - usually a dozen people or so in attendance at any of the churches. She says, “These churches were like a second family to me.”

She graduated from Douglas High School as valedictorian (one of 10) in 2014. She then attended Grace University in Omaha graduating in 2018 with a double Bachelor of Science in Secondary English Language Arts Education and Biblical Studies.

Miss Dick had a practicum at Cornerstone during her senior year of college at Grace. Now she is in her second year as a Cornerstone teacher, teaching Middle School Language Arts and History.

It is good to have you at part of our CCS teaching staff, Megan!

Fun tidbit – Megan works as a cabin leader at camps over the summer. She works for the same mission that her dad works with (InFaith) and raises her own support. The past four years (as well as planning for this summer) she has worked at Camp Grace in Wyoming and Victory Center Bible Camp near Pierre, SD. She said, “I love it! Camp is a perfect opportunity to minister to young girls. I hope God continues to stir that desire in my heart and gives me the energy and grace to continue to do this job well.”

Favorite Scripture: – “But he said to me, ‘My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.’ Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me. For the sake of Christ, then, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities. For when I am weak, then I am strong.” ~2 Corinthians 12:9-10

All School Chapel 1/23/2020 – By Michael Sweet, CCS Senior

“There are several important events that happen each year at Cornerstone - the mission trips, the retreats, the Walk-a-thon. And then, there is the All School Chapel. This is a time where the whole school comes together to worship as one body, as one family. It is definitely one of the events I will miss the most when I graduate.”
