Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised, and his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall commend your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts. On the glorious splendor of your majesty, and on your wondrous works, I will meditate. Psalm 145:3-5

Each year, we choose a theme verse as a focus for the school year and each year the Lord uses the verse in His grace and wisdom to work in and through each one of us. This year, we have chosen three verses found in Psalm 145:3-5 as our focus within the school year. In fact, three years ago I selected a theme verse in the spring for the following year then in July the Lord gently, but firmly said to me, "You have the wrong verse." And then led me to that year's theme verse in I Corinthians 13:13. This summer as I was praying for the verse for the school year, He led me to the theme of worship and His greatness, His majesty and our joy in declaring His splendor. His greatness is surely unsearchable, and He is worthy of all praise!

If you have been in my office, or if your child has had a visit with me last year, you and they have seen the verse hanging on my wall, a lovely painting by a Cornerstone mother, a gift many years ago.

They will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the Lord for the display of his splendor. Isaiah 61:3

This is my prayer for Cornerstone and each teacher and staff member and student. That we are "a planting of the Lord for the display of his splendor". This display, representing Him well, declaring His glory, telling His grace, showing His mercy, should be who we are. I recently heard someone say, "you be you", but that is not the Lord's call to His children. His call is "you be Me"- let Me fill you with my grace and compassion and joy, see people as I see them, serve as I serve, love as I love.

So in this school year, my prayer is that we are truly a "a planting of the Lord for the display of his splendor", that we represent Him well in our words and actions and thoughts. I am so excited for this new school year and thank you for joining us in this adventure of the 2021-2022 school year at Cornerstone Christian School!

And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. Philippians 1:6
