*We enjoyed visiting DeSoto National Wildlife Refuge today! Thank you to all the parents who drove! We learned so much! Look forward to hearing about it in next week's newsletter. You could get a sneak preview on our website at www.cornerstonechristianschool.org.

*It was a joy to speak with all of you at conferences. It is a blessing to be around your children each day. We have the best job!

*We would also like to give you a brief highlight of what we are learning in most of our subjects.

Math: adding and subtracting mixed numbers

Reading: finishing Charlotte's Web

Writing: descriptive paragraphs

Science: life science, with a mini unit on habitats, birds and migrations.

History: colonial life and the 13 colonies

Bible: early ministry of Jesus (Gilbert); life of Abraham and Isaac (Binko/Stiansen)
