Reading, Writing, and Spelling Rotations

This week we started our Reading, Writing, and Spelling Rotations. Throughout the week, students had time to read independently, write about various topics, and work on spelling activities. They also participated in a guided reading group, where they worked on reading skills and comprehension. During their independent reading time, they had the opportunity to create an alternative book cover as well as define various vocabulary words that were new to them throughout their reading. Students are enjoying their independence as they move from group to group and manage their time with assignments. This will quickly become a part of our routine as we move throughout the school year.

Grades on RenWeb

We have updated RenWeb with your student's most up-to-date grades. We are doing our best to keep these continuously updated as we navigate the system.

Midterm grades will be submitted next Friday, September 11th and will be sent out shortly after.
