

CORNERSTONE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

CHRONICLE

"Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory forever and ever." Amen.
Matthew 6:9-13

*Oh, that my words were recorded,
that they were written on a scroll,
that they were inscribed with an iron tool on lead,
or engraved in rock forever!
I know that my Redeemer lives,
and that in the end he will stand on the earth
And after my skin has been destroyed,
yet in my flesh I will see God;
I myself will see him
with my own eyes—I, and not another.
How my heart yearns within me!
Job 19:23-27*

Job is such an extraordinary man as described in the opening verses that tell his story. The Lord Himself is describing Job, "Have you considered my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, who fears God and turns away from evil?" (Job 1:8) Job, a ruler among the people of Uz and a man of great wealth and influence, encounters the most extreme sorrows under the watchful and loving eye of the Lord. As Job loses his wealth, his family, his place of influence in the community, and even the respect of his wife and friends, Job kneels before the Lord in submission and worship. As his friends condemn him and criticize and question him, he holds to his faith and looks to the Lord for the "Why?" of his circumstances, but the Lord in His wisdom and grace responds to Job, "Trust Me." And Job remains steadfast in his faith and adoration of the Lord, confessing and declaring that he knows upon knows that his Redeemer, Yeshua, lives and reigns and stands.

The psalmist David repeats this same faith in our Lord and today make this the prayer of your heart, knowing upon knowing that our Lord lives and reigns and stands, and in this you can take courage as you patiently wait on Him!

I believe that I shall look upon the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living! Wait for the Lord; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the Lord! Psalm 27:13-14
