

CORNERSTONE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL CHRONICLE

For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.
For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith for faith, as it is written, "The righteous shall live by faith." Romans 1:16-17

Where is your Upper Room? Where do you go to wait for Him? Where will He go to meet with you?

The events that occurred in the "upper room" are described for us in the gospels during the final hours that Jesus spent with His disciples and closest friends. The Lord ate with them, instituted the New Covenant in His blood, washed their feet, gave them final instructions and encouragement, and prayed His High Priestly prayer over them. Then our Lord left the upper room, ascended the Mount of Olives to face the betrayal, rejection, sorrow, humiliation, and death for which He had come into the world.

The Upper Room is a significant location in Jerusalem for the early church, traditionally given this name as the site of Jesus' Last Supper with his apostles and where Jesus appeared to his disciples after his resurrection. The Upper Room is also where the Holy Spirit descended upon them at Pentecost.

From the time of the Old Testament, the 'upper room' was a room built on the roof of the house and used as a place of prayer and rest and refreshing. It was so essential to those of the Jewish faith that even the poor kept such a room furnished so that guests could be welcomed. There are a number of examples in the Old Testament of an upper room being used to host and welcome others, especially the prophets.

Just as the disciples did, we can go to the Upper Room when afraid or uncertain. Like the disciples, we gather in the Upper Room to pray, seek comfort, and ask for wisdom and guidance from God in our uncertainty. In the Upper Room, we experience firsthand the unconditional love of the Father. In the Upper Room, we are filled with the Holy Spirit. As Jesus returns to Glory, He instructs his disciples to wait for the coming of the Holy Spirit and here is where Peter preaches his powerful sermon, bringing thousands to Christ.

Peter explains what God does in the Upper Room:

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: "Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say. These people are not drunk, as you suppose. It's only nine in the morning! No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel: 'In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy. I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below, blood and fire and billows of smoke. The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord. And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.' Acts 2:14-21

God is Faithful in your Upper Room. Come meet Him here!
