

CORNERSTONE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL CHRONICLE

For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith for faith, as it is written, "The righteous shall live by faith." Romans 1:16-17

Faithfulness

The Merriam- Webster Dictionary defines faithfulness as "steadfast in affection or allegiance and firm in adherence to promises or in observance of duty" and we may define faithfulness as loyalty, trust-worthy, or constancy. In the Truth of God's Word, we see faithfulness best displayed in the life of our Lord Jesus.

The Lord on the night He was betrayed, gathered His disciples together. "Then He took a cup, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, and they all drank from it. "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many," He said to them. "Truly I tell you, I will not drink again from the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. Mark 9:23-26

What an amazing picture of faithfulness, sharing the Passover with His disciples, Jesus is faithful to the plan of the Father for our salvation. Giving His blood as the covenant and as His sacrifice, only because of His allegiance to the Promise of new life in Him. You see, I have learned that faithfulness does not come from strength, but from steadfastness. And our faithfulness comes from our trust in His faithfulness, staying unwavering in our steadfastness to the Lord and His promises and His goodness. God is not calling you to stand in your own strength, but in a deep trust in His faithfulness.

I encourage you to ponder these truths:

From Micah 6:8- He has shown you, O man, what is good. And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.

From Hosea 6:6a - For I desire steadfast love and mercy, not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.

From Revelation 13:10b- This calls for patient endurance and faithfulness on the part of God's people.

In this day, be faithful, be steadfast. There are days when you will need to take a sip of His cup, sing a hymn, and walk up to the Mount of Olives.

STUDENT GALLERY

Cornerstone is excited to announce that Aubrey's artwork will be on display at The Archway Museum in Kearney this summer! Aubrey is in seventh grade and writes about her piece, "The Eye of America":

This artwork is of an American eagle. The idea behind this art piece is to celebrate the 250th anniversary of the US. American are a very protected animal in the US and American eagles all over have been taken care of very dearly because they mean so much to this country. Even though I have only seen American eagles a few times, I appreciate their beauty. This as a mural would mean a lot to any community. I spent so much time creating it. Creating it felt like helping a child grow up. I want viewers to appreciate this piece and maybe learn to love art the way I do.
